The News.

The Royal Mail steamship Asia brings us Liverpool dates to the 11th—two days later than that published in the afternoon papers. No change is spoken of in the English markets; breadstuffs are reported dull, but steady. It is asserted, upon good authority, that the British Government will guarantee a new loan of £500,000 to the Atlantic Telegraph Company, and that a contract will be made immediately. Fifteen persons had been arrested, at Cork, on the charge of being members of an alleged illegitimate society, said to have been organized for the purpose of obtaining an invasion of Ireland from America. The Irish potatoe crop is said to be the finest since 1840. BARON HUMBOLDT, the great traveller, is dangerously ill at Berlin. It is believed that nothing can be effected during the present session of Congress concerning a Pacific Rail Road bill, or a modification of the Tariff.

We have some later news from Mexico which represents that unfortunate country to be in a most deplorable condition.

Our Eastern Market reports contain nothing very important this morning. Wheat is firm at previous prices and flour heavy in the New York Market. With larger receipts our own market was brisk yesterday and standard grades of spring wheat le better, while extra was a shade lower. The weather continues remarkably fine and navigation is still open.

THE LAND WARRANT FRAUDS.—The Portage City Badger State gives the following account of the circumstances which led to the recent arrests in this city, in connection with the fraudulent land warrants:

A. R. Starke, Esq., connected with the Pension Bureau, at Washington, visited our State this week for the purpose of ferreting out supposed frauds and forgeries of parties procuring land-warrants. On Wednesday, he caused to be arrested, in Milwaukee, a man named A. J. Clarke, who, with a confederate named Feuchtwanger, has probably operated pretty extensively in making up "old settler" claims. One of the applications to the Department purports to be in favor of Mrs. Hamilton, near Portage City, for the services of her husband in Tennessee, during the Indian and later war with England.

The papers set forth, in due form, that she is some seventy five years old, and two witnesses, about the same age, swear to the circumstances, life, death and burial of her husband, Peter Hamilton. As our "oldest citizen" has no knowledge of such individuals as widow Hamilton and her witnesses, and after the most diligent inquiry by Mr. Starke, he failed to discover any such personages "near Portage City," he came to the conclusion that they were like the five men in buckram, that fought honest Jack Falstaff,—Clark has given bail in the sum of $3,000, but Feuchtwanger is still at large.

The U. S. Marshal received a note last week from FEUCHTWANGER stating that he would surrender himself on Saturday. He did so and gave bail in the sum of $3,000 for his appearance before the Grand Jury.

ORACULAR.—The Stevens Point Pinery, a "National Democratic" organ, publishes the following suggestive paragraph in its last issue:

The deposing of Judge Douglas, from his former position in the Senate (by the Democratic members) as chairman of the committee on Territories, is the most important political move that has been made for years.

It would be uncivil to ask our friend of the Pinery what his opinion is of the propriety and policy of this "move," after the above oracular opinion.

THE LEGISLATURE AND THE GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE.—The Legislature of this State assembles at Madison on Wednesday, the 5th of January. As the Republicans have a decided majority in both branches of the Legislature, there will be no difficulty in forming an immediate organization, and the Message will therefore be delivered to the Legislature on Thursday at furthest.—Wisconsin of yesterday.

We rather suspect that our neighbor of the Wisconsin is a week ahead of time. If our memory is not at fault, the Legislature meets on the second Wednesday in January, which will be the 12th proximo.

DEATH OF A MEMBER OF THE ASSEMBLY.—Hon. S. K. Barnes, member of the Assembly elect from the Fourth Assembly District, of Fond du Lac county, is dead. A new election has been ordered to fill the vacancy occasioned the death of Mr. Barnes, on the 11th of January. The Governor's Proclamation will be found in another column.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

SUPERIOR, Dec. 1858.

MR. EDITOR:—Don't be pitching into our half-breed voters! The election was all on the square. McCRACKEN is fairly chosen by over 70 majority; but the time was too short to get in the returns.

We wish that you would stir up your Republican friends in Congress to go in strong for the Northern Pacific Railroad, and if the Sentinel would call attention to the fact that Superior is half-way across the Continent, the head of a system of navigation reaching to the Atlantic, and within striking distance of the Minnesota rail roads, terminating on the Western boundary of that State, you would furnish an argument in favor of the route and be doing us a service for which we should be duly grateful.

Our coldest weather thus far this season, has been twenty-two degrees below zero. The snow is six inches deep. SUPERIOR.

Assumption in Walworth Co.

SPRING PRAIRIE, Walworth Co., Dec. 23.

At a public meeting, held pursuant to a call of the Supervisors and others, for the purpose of considering the State Assumption scheme, the subject was discussed with reference to sinking funds and the circulation of Railroad bonds during the winter season, &c, and the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, At a meeting in Milwaukee, of which W. C. ALLEN was chairman, a memorial to the Legislature was adopted calling for an amendment to the constitution that will admit of the State assuming debts incurred in the building of Railroads.

Resolved, That we earnestly remonstrate against the adoption by the Legislature of any such measures, the object being nothing less than the taxing of one person to pay the debts of another, or taxing the many for the benefit of the few, that the project is impolitic, unjust, immoral and tyrannical. It is against liberty, a violation of equal rights, a dishonor to the State, calculated to drive settlers from the State and prevent immigration.

Resolved, That our Senator and Assemblymen be requested to use their influence to prevent this great wrong, and to arrest it in its most incipient state.

Resolved, That we will take no newspaper whose Editor favors State Assumption, and we will support no man for office who will aid in accomplishing this great wrong.

M. STEEVER, P. M.

Milwaukee, Dec. 27, 1858.

Christmas Day in the City.

The heavens smiled brightly upon Christmas Day. A more beautiful morning seldom dawned. The air was bland, the sunshine brilliant, the wheeling good, and the ice on the river smooth and strong. As early as half past 3 A. M. the Cathedral chimes, ringing out in the clear and frosty morning air, summoned all good Catholics to early mass. By 4 o'clock the vast edifice was crowded almost to suffocation with an attentive and devout audience. The services were impressive, and the music excellent. During the day, the churches of other denominations, in which services was held, were well filled with earnest auditors. The Episcopal churches were handsomely and appropriately decorated with evergreens.

Most of the "shopping" for Christmas was done on Christmas Eve, or the afternoon previous, and a busy time it was with all the Dry-Goods dealers, Fancy Stores, Family Groceries, &c.—Still, some had not completed their purchases till Saturday noon, but by afternoon almost all the stores were closed and everybody keeping holiday.

SANTA CLAUS was in his glory and the interchange of presents and of "Merry Christmas" salutations, was very general. Excellent lunches were served up, from 12 to 1 o'clock, at SPANGENBERG & FINCK'S, in the Albany, at HARRY BINGHAM'S, and at other popular resorts. The elegant Billiard Saloon of Messrs. H. E. DICKINSON & Co, in the Albany, was crowded throughout the day. In the afternoon, the ice on the River was covered with skaters, and the bridges and docks with spectators. At 4 o'clock P. M, a sumptuous dinner was served up at the Newhall House, of which some 200 ladies and gentlemen partook. A social dance followed the dinner.

JOHNSON'S Athenæum was crowded in the evening, and the performances passed off well. There was a great deal of general merry-making and occasionally, as the hour grew late, a "skirmmage" or two between excited individuals, meandering through the streets. No serious mischief was done, however, and upon the whole, it was a delightful Christmas Day. May our readers live to enjoy many more such.

Detroit and Milwaukee Freight Route.

The Propeller Michigan, which the Detroit and Milwaukee R. R. Co. have chartered to run between this city and Grand Haven during the winter, left here Sunday evening, with a cargo of 613 barrels of Pork and Beef, 801 barrels of Flour, 17 barrels Ashes and 74 tons Merchandize. The Milwaukee Belle, which went out on Friday with a full cargo, was expected back with a return load last night, or this morning. She will make another trip immediately, leaving here probably to-morrow in tow of the tug Notter, as there is another cargo of freight already awaiting shipment. The new route is becoming deservedly popular, and its success is now placed beyond a peradventure. With anything of favorable weather, the Michigan will be able to make three trips a week without difficulty, and as her accommodations for passengers are very fair, no doubt many will avail themselves of the opportunities thus afforded for making a cheap and speedy trip to the East.

Persons in the interior, or Western part of the State, or Minnesota, who have Flour, Pork, or any description of goods to ship to the East, will find the Detroit and Milwaukee route, not only much cheaper than any other, but in every respect the most expeditious, and Merchants who have goods to bring out from New York, Philadelphia, Boston, or elsewhere, will save both time and money by ordering them shipped through this channel.

ROW CHRISTMAS NIGHT.—Quite a rumpus was kicked up in the Fifth Ward, Saturday night, which came near resulting fatally. A lot of rowdies, some twenty or thirty in number, all on a regular "bender," went to a dance house on Reed street, near the corner of Florida, but the owner of the house foreseeing trouble, undertook to shut them out. The rowdies were not to be put off so easily; they came with the intention of having a "time," and they demanded admittance. Their clamors not being heeded, however, they commenced a regular bombardment of the premises; brick bats were freely used, and hostilities only ceased when every window and door in the house was knocked to "smithereens." One of the inmates of the house, a bar-keeper, got a terrible cut on the head from a brickbat, which came near settling his hash. A couple of policemen were there, but they were so far outnumbered that there was no chance for them to do anything.

THE ATHENÆUM—COMPLIMENTARY BENEFIT TO MR. JOHNSON.—A complimentary benefit is to be given this evening to Mr. W. F. JOHNSON, the popular and pains-taking lessee of the Athenæum. Mr. JOHNSON has labored indefatigably for some weeks past, to cater for the public amusement; and he has had his labor for his pains, the houses hardly paying expenses. Yet his Company is much above the average; the hall is spacious, comfortable and well provided, and Mr. JOHNSON himself one of the very best actors on the modern stage.

To-night, he opens a capital bill, appearing himself in two favorite characters, "Sir Peter Teazle," and "Greg Goodluck." Surely, the occasion and the entertainment ought to fill the house to the utmost capacity.

THE CHARTER CONVENTION.—This body was again in session yesterday, and made some progress with their work. Why is it, by the way, that the People are not allowed to see the new charter? The idea seems to be, to withhold it from them, till the Convention has licked it into shape, and then say "take this, or nothing."—We do not fancy the alternative.

MUSICAL SOCIETY CONCERT.—We hope that all our music-loving readers will bear in mind the Concert at Albany Hall, on Thursday evening, for the benefit of the Milwaukee Musical Society. The Concert will be a capital one, and, with the object for which it is given, ought to attract a crowded house.

POCKET DIARIES FOR 1859.—Messrs. NOONAN & MCNAB, one door north of the Post Office, have for sale an excellent form of "Diaries of 1859." Everything else in the Stationery Line, and all of the best, is to be found in their spacious and well filled store.

☞ CALEB WALL, the City Auctioneer, will sell Dry Goods, Boots and Shoes, &c., &c., at 10 o'clock this morning.

THE TEMPORARY HOME FOR CHILDREN.—The temporary home for children, of which mention has previously been made in our columns, is now in operation, and although it has been open only for a week, already twelve little ones are enjoying its comforts. It is under the auspices of an association of benevolent individuals of which the Rev. Mr. STAPLES is President. The object of this institution is to afford relief to children who have no one to provide for them during the winter, or whose parents may be in reduced circumstances. The society has secured a comfortable house on Jackson street, near Michigan, which is placed under the charge of a very excellent widow lady named Mrs. CRAWFORD, and it is large enough for the accommodation of from 40 to 50 children. The duty of providing for the children is entrusted to a number of committees; for instance, there is one to procure food, another to attend to the clothing of the children, and another to take charge of the teaching department. The society has employed a lady to instruct the little ones a couple of hours daily, who is also assisted by one or more of the lady members of the association every day, and it is the intention to have a Sabbath School on Sundays. The children now in the Home are mostly little boys ranging in ages from 6 to 13 years. They are all comfortably clad, are kindly treated, and look quite happy.

The conditions upon which children are taken are as follows: The parents of children, (when they have any,) are required to sign a release of the child, for five months; this is found necessary in order to prevent them from taking away the children as soon as they are comfortably clothed. Children taken from houses of prostitution are received if not over eight years of age, and those who have neither parents or guardians are received unconditionally. The "Home" is a snug three-story frame building, not very large, but comfortably furnished. The kitchen, dining room, &c., are in the basement, the school, and reception rooms, together with the Superintendent's room, are in the first story, and the sleeping appartments up stairs.

The association pledges to provide for all children entrusted to their care in a comfortable and suitable manner, and we doubt not but that the "Home" will be the means of saving many a little one from the pangs of hunger and cold during the harsh winter months.

SUNDAY SCHOOL FESTIVAL.—The Sabbath School connected with the "Free Church of the Atonement," held their Christmas Festival in Young's Lecture Room, on Christmas Eve. The children met at the Church at 3½ P. M., and after a Lecture from their much esteemed Pastor, the Rev. H. M. THOMPSON, marched in procession to the Hall, on reaching which the seats were assigned to the School—each Teacher having the care of his class. After a short time spent in recreation, the children partook of a splendid Supper prepared by the Ladies of the Congregation. The Parents, Friends and Teachers then regaled themselves. The Supper being over, the Fruits of the Christmas Tree were distributed to one hundred and twenty children, together with a book to each child, after which the Pastor was presented with three volumes of his own choice, purchased by the Sabbath School children, each volume having inscribed on the cover, "To our kind Pastor." This was truly an affecting scene; three of the children were appointed to present them, and did so in the following words: "Dear Pastor, on behalf of the School, we take great pleasure in presenting you with these volumes as a token of our esteem and love." The Reverend gentleman thanked them in a feeling address. The next presentation was by the Superintendent to R. RASDALL, Jr. It consisted of a handsome volume of congregational music, together with a present from a few of the ladies of the congregation as a token of their appreciation of his services in teaching the children in the musical part of the services of the church. The teachers then presented the Superintendent with a beautiful vase and inkstand, who, in returning thanks, took occasion to give a short history of the school since the mission was first established, and demonstrated what perseverance under trials would accomplish, and concluded with a strong appeal to the benevolent, and thanks to those friends who had rendered them aid and encouragement.

The children were then amused with an exhibition of dissolving views by Mr. R. RASDALL, St. Recitations and songs by the children then followed, at the close of which great applause was manifested. The School was then dismissed, and after a short time spent in innocent amusements, the company separated, highly gratified with their entertainment.

The thanks of the School were tendered to W. P. YOUNG, Esq., for his liberal donation of the Hall, to Messrs. BLAIR and PERSONS for the use of their crockery, to Mr. J. GOODMAN for lamps, and to the legion of friends who contributed to make the Festival one long to be remembered.

PIGEON SHOOT AT THE LAYTON HOUSE, DECEMBER 24TH.—The sportsmen had a lively time on Christmas day, at the Layton House. The Americans, having their own trap, and wishing to shoot by themselves, clubbed altogether.—The Germans then made up a match to shoot for the dinner, free to all, without regard to nationality. Shooting to be twenty one yards rise, spring trap, and 80 yards full, with the following result:

Pk,	11011—4	Sk,	11110—4
Bmb,	00100—1	Mt,	11111—5
Pe,	11111—5	Paz,	11101—4

After this match was finished, a sweepstake was gotten up, and divided into two prizes, to shoot at six birds each, which resulted as follows:

Mt,	101110—4	Pk,	111111—6
Has	001001—1	Se,	011001—3
Bmb,	001111—4	Sch,	110010—3

The first prize was won by Bolkenius. The second prize by Helms.

After dinner was disposed of, which was gotten up in Col. Grounse's good style, the Germans having sufficient pigeons left, invited two of the crack shots from the American party, to have a friendly match together. Mr. Kellogg and R. Chandler were the ones chosen. A sweep-stake was then made up, and divided into two prizes.—The shooting to be at nine birds each. Twenty-one yards rise, and eighty yards fall. The following was the result:

Seaman,	111111110	Schmidt,	110101111
Mkime,	010010001	Selbolt,	001011110
Polkenius,	111100111	Martin,	101000011
Preusser,	111111001	Layton,	111000110
Baumback,	011100111	Kellogg,	100111111
Chandler.			000101100

Seaman won the first prize. Bolkenius, Preusser, Schmidt and Kellogg having a tie, the result of shooting off the tie was as follows:

Bolkenius,	1110	Schmidt,
Preusser.		Kellogg,	1111

OYSTERS FOR THE HOLIDAYS.—Friend COOK, the Oyster man, in Albany Block, Main street, informs us that he will sell Oysters during the Holidays at the following reduced prices: Kegs at $1; Cans at 50 cents. From pleasant experience, we can recommend COOK'S Oysters to all admirers of the delicious bivalves.

LA CROSSE AND MILWAUKEE R. R.—IMPORTANT NOTICE.—The attention of the creditors of the La Crosse and Milwaukee R. R. Company, is specially invited to a notice in our advertising columns, this morning, signed by the Secretary, Mr. E. P. WHALING.

[Communicated.]

An Elegant Presentation.

The circumstance of Friday evening, last, being Christmas Eve, it was selected by the students of SALOM'S Wisconsin State Mercantile College, as a suitable opportunity for expressing the love they bear their President, Mr. SALOM, and accordingly presented to him a massive silver goblet and waiter, bearing the following inscription:

"In appreciation of his eminent talents and services, and to perpetuate the recollection of the gratitude and love he inspired, this goblet and waiter, is presented to SALOM HENRY SALOM, President of the Wisconsin State Mercantile College, by his students, with the fervent prayer that he may be spared to see many happy returns of this evening.

Christmas Eve, 1858."

The testimonial was presented to Mr. SALOM, at the request of the students, by Mr. WILLIAM SITTER, Jr., who made a happy and feeling speech; to which Mr. SALOM made a suitable reply, narrating the circumstances of his career in Milwaukee, the difficulties he encountered in establishing the College on its present firm foundation, and closed by expressing his gratitude for the kindness.

Accompanying the more substantial testimonial, was the following address:

"We, the undersigned, students of SALOM'S Wisconsin State Mercantile College, request your acceptance of the accompanying goblet and waiter as a feeble expression of the gratitude and love we feel towards you; and as a means whereby those who shall come after us, may read the affection their predecessors bore to you. Wishing you every blessing that our Heavenly Father can bestow, we remain, dear Sir,

Your affectionate and grateful Students.

And others.

After the presentation, the President entertained the students. The evening was spent in the good old Christmas style, songs, declamations and sentiments, being given alike by students and teacher. The party broke up about 11 o'clock, after enjoying themselves hugely; and will doubtless resume their studies with renewed vigor and interest.

The testimonial, which was got up only on two days' notice, is the best evidence of the popularity of Mr. SALOM, and the generosity and good feeling of the students. The waiter and vase were purchased of Messrs. MATSON & LOOMIS.

An Appeal to the Charitable.

EDITOR DAILY SENTINEL:—Although the charity of our people, to provide for the necessities of the poor, has been taxed to its utmost during the present Fall and Winter, there is yet another and the greatest amongst all the objects that call for the exercise of Christian charity and sympathy—the eighty-one female orphans under the care of the Sisters of Charity. It is known to our fellow-citizens that the support of those eighty-one children, falls mainly upon the poorest and most indigent class amongst us, the Irish Catholics.

True, our Protestant fellow-citizens are, and always have been generous and liberal towards this charity; still, the main dependence is upon this poor class of Irish. Our citizens are aware that the want of employment the past season, and at the present time, has so pauperized this class of beneficiaries, that many of them are recipients of aid from the county. There are some amongst us whom God has blessed with a super-abundance of the good things of this life, but withheld that greater blessing, off-spring, to stimulate and excite the generous and loving impulses of the human heart, and from our personal knowledge this above all others, is that class for whom compulsory laws are made.

It is to this citizens, generally, who have families to maintain, that we look for aid for the orphan children—to those who have dear children of their own to excite their sympathies and affections. It may be stated by some that the soup houses and public relief societies are organized, officered, and maintained by our Protestant fellow-citizens, and that Catholics are not observed to take any active or leading part in these charities, and therefore do nothing. To such parties we would say, visit the building in the rear of the Cathedral, and the school-room in the rear of St. Gall's church, Fourth Ward any Sunday, after church, and observe for yourselves. You will then be satisfied that they are efficient co-workers. The small fund we had on hand for the maintenance of those eighty-one orphan girls, is entirely exhausted, and some provision must be made for their maintenance during the winter. A Festival will be held for this purpose at Albany Hall, on Wednesday evening next, the 29th inst, and it is hoped that all who can, will take tickets for the occasion.—They can be obtained at Mr. J. FURLONG'S store corner of East Water and Huron streets, or at the Orphan Asylum.

Although our mode of getting up charitable festivals may not harmonize with the opinions of some few amongst us, still, we ask of such to let not the manner of doing good smother your charity, rather let the end to be obtained excite your most generous sympathy. We know from experience that our mode at present, and for us, is the only successful way of procuring the aid we require. CHARITY.

UNION RELIEF SOCIETY OF MILWAUKEE.—A meeting of the Executive Committee of the Union Relief Society of Milwaukee was held on Saturday evening, the 25th inst. G. F. AUSTIN, President, in the chair. On motion of Dr. M. P. HANSON, the following named gentlemen were appointed as Collectors and Directors for the various wards:

First Ward—Henry S. Van Deren and Jacob Mahler.

Second Ward—J. C. Dick, J. A. Phelps, Alex. Conhausen.

Third Ward—J. B. Judson, J. F. Bradford, Peter Turck.

Fourth Ward—Sumner R. Johnson, N. B. Caswell, Ambrose Ely.

Fifth Ward—F. Conrad, S. H. Martin, Rev. S. G. Day.

Seventh Ward—A. G. Hayden, C. Knobelsdoff, Leonard Kennedy.

Ninth Ward—Samuel Brown, M. Herman, Gerrit Vliet.

On motion of Mr. G. Hayden it was resolved, that the Secretary shall furnish to the Collectors subscription books, certified by the President and Secretary of the Society, and that the Collectors shall commence collecting as soon as possible, and report the results at the next meeting of the Executive Committee to be held on Monday, the 3d of January, 1859, at half-past 7 P. M., at office of the Secretary, in Murray's Block on Market Square. C. KNOBELSDORFF.

The Second Ward Pumps.

MR. EDITOR:—Dear Sir: Will you please call the attention of the "City Fathers" to the condition of the City Pumps? I am not aware how many are out of order, but I am certain from ocular demonstration that the City Pump near the Fountain House, is in very bad order. It refuses to let down, as the women say (when they have a hard milker) or else it won't let up. "Leger ish very good," but it won't do to boil potatoes in. By calling the attention of the proper authorities to the above, you will do a favor to many who are necessitated to get water from the City Pumps. L. JONES,

West Water street, 2d Ward.

JOHNSON'S ATHENÆUM—OLD JOHNSON'S BENEFIT.—Benefit—"a favor bestowed," vide JOHNSON'S Dictionary. Not old "SAM JOHNSON'S," but old BILL JOHNSON'S Benefit Bill, when all bills will be accepted till but due bills, counterfeit bills, and broken bank bills—such bills are not received till, for the good bill which "Old Bill" will render presentable bill. It is a new bill and a true bill, and such a bill as will tend to rebuild the declining credit of "Old Bill."

Whose file of due bills,
Is a pile of blue bills.

But as he is responsible bill for Tuesday night's bill, he trusts he will be able bill

To get through the play bill,
And pay every due bill,
Then no one can sue BILL.

Then, come one and all, the bricks shall fly,
From Mr. Young's Hall sooner than I.

Done at our Council Chamber, Young's Hall, by and with consent of Council, this Christmas eve, Dec. 24. WM. F. JOHNSON, Governor of Kansas Territory.

FEVER AND AGUE.—A CASE OF EIGHT MONTHS STANDING CURED BY SCHRAUB'S HOLLAND BITTERS.—Michael Kelly, No. 117 Seventh, near Grand Street, says:

"Last July, while running on the river, on a cotton-boat plying between Natchez and New Orleans, I was taken with Fever and Ague. For eight long months I suffered with this dreadful disease. The greater part of this time I was unable to work, and spent at least fifty dollars for different medicines, but found no permanent relief. Three weeks ago, one of my friends insisted upon my trying SCHRAUB'S HOLLAND BITTERS, saying that a cure was guaranteed. After taking it for one week, I most state I was a sound man. I have been at work now for two weeks, and have had no return of the Chills and Fever whatever."

LATEST NEWS!

BY MAGNETIC TELEGRAPH.

Later from Europe—Arrival of the Asia.

SANDY HOOK, Dec. 27.

The Royal Mail Steamship Asia, from Liverpool on Saturday, the 11th inst., has passed this point on her way to New York. Her advices are two days later than those brought by the Pacific at St. Johns.

Numerous arrests had been made near Cork, of parties connected with the filibustering invasion from America.

It was fully expected that the Government will guarantee a new capital of £500,000, to the Atlantic Telegraph Company, and that a contract to lay a new cable immediately will be made.

It is said that the French Commissioner recommends the continuance of the African emigrant scheme.

The Calcutta, China and Australia mails were telegraphed, but the news was not important.

The Asia, on Dec. 10th, at 8 A. M., exchanged signals with the Royal Mail steamship Oshawa, for Liverpool. On the 13th, 7:30 P. M., she passed a large steamer, supposed to be the City of Baltimore. On the 24th, at 1:20 A. M., exchanged night signals with the Persia. The Asia had strong head winds, with a westerly swell.

Baron Rothschilde had given £200 to found a scholarship for the City of London school, in commemoration of his admission as a Jew to Parliament.

Fifteen persons had been arrested on the charge of being members of an alleged illegitimate society, said to have been organized to obtain an invasion of Ireland from America. They were all young men; twelve of them from Skibbereen, and three from Bantry. They were brought to Cork by the Bandon train on 9th, under the escort of a large body of police.

The Judicial Committee of the Privy Council had confirmed the decree of the Admiralty Court in the matter of the collision between the American ship North America and a Spanish vessel, in the Irish Channel. The decision held that both were to blame.

The Asia reached her dock at half past seven.

In a speech at a grand banquet, given by the Fishmongers company, in London, Earl Camarron, a member of the Cabinet, declared the total dissent of Government from the recommendations of Sir J. Young's purloined despatch, relating to the future policy to be pursued in the Protectorate of the Ionia Islands.

Several distinguished politicians, including Lord Palmerston, Mr. Low, and Messrs. Gibson and Bright, had been addressing large public meetings on political topics in general, and the reform question in particular.

The long pending demonstration in the shape of a soiree at Manchester, in honor of the two last named gentleman, came off on the evening of the 10th. 3,000 people were present. Mr. Bright again eulogized the representative system of the U. S.

The London Times says, in reference to the Atlantic Cable, the company had made application to the Government for a guarantee of 4½ per cent on £537,000, subject to the same conditions as that of the Red Sea Line, and this has been backed by memorials from all the leading firms of London, Manchester, Birmingham, Liverpool, Leeds, Halifax, Bradford, Hull, Glasgow, Paisley and Norwich. Supposing it to be granted, contracts will be immediately concluded for a new cable, and any negotiations with the American Government will be subsequently entered into. No attempt can be made with any prospect of success, to lift the old cable, until the return of calm weather, at the end of April or May, and even under the best circumstances the expectations with regard to the operations, were not favorable.

Meanwhile, it has been definitely ascertained that the existing damage was not at the shore end. The laying of the new end has been completed a distance of twelve miles out from Valentia. The experiments lately undertaken by persons previously unconnected with the enterprise, confirm the original inference that the main fault is about 270 miles from the Irish coast, at a depth of 900 fathoms. There is also a fault on the other side, which is thought to be about 300 miles from Newfoundland. Currents, however, still continue to be received, although of a kind so feeble as to be useless for any practical purposes.

At present the Telegraph is in charge of Mr. Healy, who is manufacturing an apparatus such as his experience on the spot leads him to think may yet possibly lead to some results, but in no case could there be a hope of achieving permanently satisfactory communication otherwise than by a new line. The Times thinks there is little doubt but that the consent of the government will be given.

The meeting of the French Legislature is postponed till February.

Montelambert's appeal is set down for December 24th.

River and Harbor Improvements.

A few weeks since, the New York Canal Board appointed a Committee to prepare a Memorial to Congress, urging appropriations for the improvement of the Buffalo and Oswego harbors, the two Lake termini of the New York Canals. The task of drawing up the memorial was confided to SAMUEL B. RUGGLES, Esq., and he has just completed it. As might be anticipated, the document is a very able one, and the arguments in favor of such appropriations by the General Government, unanswerable. Mr. RUGGLES maintains that the Lakes are emphatically national waters, not only in extent and importance, but in a legal and political character; that the constitution has placed these waters beyond the separate authority of the States—that New York has surrendered the control of this vast commerce to the Union, and with it, surrendered the princely revenue, and the immense political power which it secures—that the only adequate equivalent which can be rendered to New York for her sacrifices and concessions, is a just and liberal improvement and protection of the Lake commerce by the national government—that the New York canals are national in capacity—that the State, ever faithful to the best interests of the Union, has never taken any unfair advantage of her commanding position, either by discriminating tolls or otherwise, but has extended the same privileges to the whole Union as to her own citizens—and that she has thereby increased the moral strength and elevated the public character of the confederacy.

Much of this argument applies equally well to appropriations for other ports on Lake Erie and Oswego, as to those on Lake Huron and Lake Michigan. In fact, the duty of Congress to protect the Commerce of our Western Lakes and Rivers is just as clear and urgent, as that to maintain a Navy, to build breakwaters and to send out exploring expeditions, for the encouragement and protection of our Ocean Commerce.

Bright and Fitch Repudiated.

On the 22d instant, the Legislature of Indiana passed the following resolutions:

Whereas, The State of Indiana has been and now is unrepresented in the Senate of the United States, and whereas, there is now no law other than the Constitution of the United States and of this State, providing for the choice by the Legislature of this State and whereas, it is essential that the Legislature shall choose such Senators at the present session.

Therefore be it Resolved, That the Senate and House of Representatives shall, upon the passage of these resolutions, by either House, proceed immediately to the choice of two persons, to represent the State in the Senate of the United States, and that a majority of each House shall be necessary to such choice.

The above resolutions passed the Senate by 26 to 24, and the House by 51 to 46.

The Senate subsequently elected Henry S. Lane, Republican, and Wm. Monroe McCarty, Anti-Lecompton Democrat, by twenty-six votes. Twenty-three members refused to vote. Heffner, (Lecomptonite) bolted. One absentee. In the House, on the vote for Senators, Lane and McCarty received fifty-one. Forty-six refused to vote. The Anti-Lecomptonites of the House all voted for the Senators elect. The announcement of the result was loudly applauded.

A general rejoicing on the part of the part of the Republicans and Anti-Lecomptonites was had over the result, at Indianapolis.

CHARACTERISTIC MISREPRESENTATION.—The Appleton Crescent, a zealous "National Democratic organ," has the following brief allusion to the last Congressional street fight:

A street fight in Washington between Montgomery of Pennsylvania and English of Indiana—both honorable M. C.'s, and lovers of Freedom!

By the term "lovers of Freedom," the Crescent undoubtedly meant its readers to understand that ENGLISH and MONTGOMERY were both Republicans. The truth is, they are both Democrats. The blame and reproach of the affray belongs wholly to Mr. ENGLISH, whose conduct in the matter was alike dastardly and disgraceful.

ASSUMPTION IN THE SECOND DISTRICT.—"Assumption" does not take with the people. The River Falls (Pierce County) Journal of the 23d inst., has the following:

MASS CONVENTION.—A Mass Convention of all those in this county opposed to the assumption of the Railroad debts by the State, will be held at Prescott, on Friday, the 24th of December. We are not informed who will be expected to speak, but doubtless there will be able addresses on the occasion.

It is expected that petitions to the legislature in opposition to this assumption will be generally circulated. We trust that the people of North-Western Wisconsin will emphatically condemn this plundering scheme.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—Under date of Dec. 22, the correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette furnishes the following news items from the National capital:

The Pension Bill, which passed the House today, would absorb over twelve millions annually. The Democrats will kill it in the Senate, it having passed the House by the vote of parties who were anxious to make a bold strike for popularity, even at the risk of being classed as demagogues.

The President has restored some of the most worthless and notorious characters in the whole Navy, under the pressure of political influence.

The members of Congress are dispersing already, under the resolution for adjournment to the 4th of January.

INCREASE OF DIVORCE CASES IN ENGLAND.—The London correspondent of the New York Times says that the new Divorce and Probate Court, in London, is getting blocked up almost as much as the leading thoroughfares! A vast crop of cases, disclosing every variety of matrimonial misery, and malfeasance, has suddenly sprung up under the encouraging influences of the new divorce act. The comparative cost of obtaining separations between husband and wife is still too great for the humbler classes. But the luxury of such litigation has been fairly brought within the reach of whole sections of society that never seriously contemplated it before. Divorce a vinculo matrimonii has likewise been so much facilitated by the provisions of the statute in question, that many suits of the kind are now brought which could not have been before. Two hundred and fifty cases of the kind now await a hearing.

THE EXPENSES OF A GREAT CITY.—Eight millions of dollars are called for to pay one year's bills of the city of New York. The following are some of the principal items:—A million for the police, a million for water, eight hundred thousand for the poor, a million and a quarter for schools, a million and a half for streets, half a million for light, thirteen hundred thousand for the State, six hundred thousand for salaries.

GENERAL SCOTT AT CHARLESTON.—General SCOTT was escorted to the steamer Isabel on Saturday evening, Dec. 18, by the military of Charleston. At the wharf, a delegation of the Washington Light Infantry waited on him and presented him with an address. The delegation then exhibited to him the Eutaw flag, under which GREEN, MARION and WASHINGTON had fought. He regarded it a moment, and exclaimed, "That's a flag to fight under, and to die for."

Pioneer Festival at Whitewater.

Our Whitewater neighbors are getting up a Pioneers' Festival at the Montour House in that village for New Year's Eve. The Register informs us that the arrangements for the occasion have been made on the most liberal scale, and that a large attendance of guests from abroad and of citizens at home is confidently expected. The Montour House, where the entertainment is to be given, is an excellent hotel, spacious, well-furnished and well-kept. It is expected that a goodly number of the editorial fraternity will be present, who will take care that everything said and done on the occasion, worthy of record, is faithfully preserved. As Milwaukee contains among her fifty thousand people not a few of "the Old Pioneers," a suitable delegation is surely looked for from this city. We hope that our Whitewater friends will not be disappointed in this expectation.

Washington Matters

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.

The Catholic Priest who opened the Senate with prayer to-day, was Father Boyle of St Patrick's Church in this city. The Senate was full of priests in surplices and cassocks. It is the first occasion since the foundation of the Government that the entire vestments of the Romish cloth had been seen in either chamber.—Telegraph Report.

All bosh, sir. It is not true that the above was the first instance in which Catholic Priests and even Bishops have appeared in either House of Congress in their robes of office—yes, and preached there too, to the congregated wisdom of the Nation. Among other instances I recall, is that on the occasion of the burial of PETER E. BOSLER, a member from Louisiana, the Bishop of Baltimore, (I think that was his title,) and six or eight priests, or fathers, with pages, image bearers, incense-burners, &c., &c., attended, in the House of Representatives, in all the paraphernalia of their respective stations, and went through all the forms and ceremonies of the Catholic Church on such occasions, besides preaching a sermon one hour and a half long to the aforesaid dignitaries, but no one complained of it. Some may have laughed, and others yawned at the tediousness of the ceremony, but, certainly, no one thought it unprecedented, or a dangerous innovation. It may, however, be proper to remark that this occured before the advent of the Know-Nothings. Yours,

Milwaukee, Dec. 27. S.

OPEN POLAR SEA—INTERESTING LETTER FROM AGASSIZ.—On Thursday evening, Dr. Hayes, the fellow-voyager of the late Dr. Kane, delivered a lecture in New York before the American Geographical and Statistical Society, and maintained the truth of Morton's discovery of an open polar sea. He reads several letters in favor of further prosecution of the search, and among them the following:

CAMBRIDGE, Dec. 6, 1858.

MY DEAR LECONTE: * * * I beg to add a word with regard to Dr. Hayes's expedition.—I consider it as highly important, not only in a scientific point of view, but particularly so for the interest of the whale fisheries. The organization of these huge inhabitants of the ocean, seems to me to furnish the most direct proof that there is an open sea in the Arctics. The whales being warm-blooded air-breathing animals, must come to the surface to breathe. They cannot live without it. Now it is well known that during the winter they are not found outside—that is, to the south of the ice-belt of the Arctic seas. They retreat Northward during the cold season, and if the whole expanse of that Arctic sea was covered with ice, they would necessarily perish during the long winter. I do not know a more direct evidence of the presence of extensive open water in the northermost regions of the globe, than the mode of life of the whales; and the discovery of a passage into that open water, which would render whale fishing possible during the winter, would be one of the most important results of the improvement of whale fishing. The argument may not strike forcibly one who is not acquainted with the structure of the whales, but to a physiologist it must be irresistable. Very truly, your friend,

L. AGASSIZ.

Dr. John L. Leconte, Philadelphia.

FIRES.—On Friday last, the Washington Woolen Mill, at Checkerville, about four miles from Utica, N. Y., was destroyed by fire. The Utica Herald thinks it was the largest woolen manufactory in the State, having cost $250,000. It was owned by ROCKWELL & FERRY and the Utica City Bank. There was only an insurance of $15,000 on the property destroyed.

The town of Raymond, Miss., was almost entirely burned to the ground a few days ago. The loss is very nearly $250,000. One of the heaviest sufferers was Mr. Gibbs, whose loss is estimated at $60,000, with no insurance.

The floating mill commonly known as the "Ship Mill," about two miles from Richmond, Va., on James River, was burned on Thursday of last week. The entire loss of the proprietors is about $65,000.

GEN CASS AND THE MORTARA CASE.—Our venerable Secretary of State, Gen. Cass, has written another letter on the Mortara case, in which, while declining to interfere officially, he has "screwed his courage to the sticking point" of expressing his individual condemnation of the outrage. The Washington correspondent of the N. Y Times says:

Gen. Cass, in a letter to Capt. Levy, of this city, dated Monday, while giving his reasons for withholding authoritative censure to this government of the proceedings at Bologna in the case of the boy Mortara, says, as an individual, he has no hesitation in expressing his surprise and regret at the deplorable occurrence in the Papal States, and that it is difficult to conceive how such an act of injustice could take place in the middle of the Nineteenth Century and in the heart of Europe. The judgment of the world, he adds, will condemn it.

THE NEW YORK LEDGER—THE MOUNT VERNON PAPERS.—The New York Ledger for January 1st is a model weekly paper. It is elegantly printed, and filled with interesting, original and selected matter. Mr. EVERETT publishes, in this number, the first of his "Mount Vernon Papers," which are to be continued weekly throughout the year. The Ledger also contains excellent articles from such well-known contributors as GEORGE D. PRENTICE, J. G. SAXE, Mrs. SIGOURNEY, &c. The circulation of the Ledger has reached the almost fabulous number of 350,000—much of it due to liberal and judicious advertising.

Proclamation.

SPECIAL NOTICE.—A special election is hereby ordered to be held on Tuesday, the 11th day of JANUARY, A. D. 1859, in the towns of Calumet, Empire, Forest, Mansfield and Taycheedah, comprising the Fourth Assembly District of Fond du Lac county, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of S. K. BARNS, member of Assembly elect from the said district. The term of of office for which the said election is ordered, commences on the 1st day of January, A. D. 1859, and ends on the 31st day of December, 1859.

Given under my hand, and the Great Seal of the State, at Madison, this 24th

By the Governor:
ALEX. W. RANDALL
J. D. RUGGLES, Asst. Secy. of State.

ABDUCTION AND SALE OF A FREE NEGRO.—Jacob S. Sherman, a railroad contractor, who used to be about Steubenville, Ohio, went from there about the 25th of last March to Arkonsport, Ark., to railroad there, and decoyed away with him, as his body servant, a mulatto boy of Steubenville, named George McPherson. Sherman was not very successful in Arkansas, and finally sold George to his creditors for $1,500.

George is about twenty years of age, stout built, some five feet four inches high, thick lips, but a bright mulatto, with freckles on his face.—His parents live at Steubenville.—Cincinnati Gazette, 23d.

RICH DISCOVERY OF MINERAL.—We learn from Mr. Grey, of Fairplay, Wis., that within a few days a large Lead Mine has been discovered by Messrs. John Watson and John Tomlinton, a short distance north of the village of Fairplay, on lands belonging to Mr. A. Carns. It promises to be equally good with the Mann & Hunnuker Lead, now being worked on the same lands. It was struck in the first shaft sunk in prospecting, and such is the abundance of mineral, that 7,000 lbs. were taken out in a few hours.—Galena Advertiser, 24th.

The Mortara Case—The Seebote.

To the Editor of the Sentinel—DEAR SIR:—You will, I trust, excuse the delay in my correspondence, when I assure you that it was occasioned by an accidental absence from home, and the consequent disability to peruse any late Milwaukee papers. If the "Catholic," of the News, whose communication I have tried in vain to obtain, should charge you with any responsibility as to my last article, you may again assure him of his error, should you consider the matter of sufficient consequence.

Respectfully yours, &c., J.

The Mortara Case and the Bishop of Buenos Ayres.

The arguments of the "Seebote" are no less astonishing than amusing, and the humble writer of these lines knows full well how to appreciate the honor conferred upon him, when the mighty mind of the "Seebote" condescended to notice his communication of the 12th inst.—The "exclusively political paper" is of the opinion that the Watertown correspondence is "indeed too silly and ridiculous a manufacture to deserve a particular attention," nevertheless the zeal for universal enlightenment induces the consistent editor of that tolerant sheet, to manufacture nearly a column of phraseology in order to prove the insignificance of my last remarks.—Very kind indeed, but quite incomprehensible.

The "Seebote" seems to labor under an illusion that an attempt was made to make him responsible for the late outrage of the Bishop of Buenos Ayres. This would really—to use the worthy antagonist's elegant language—"come near to a perfect nonsense," but such nonsense has never been committed; it was merely the writer's curiosity which prompted him to display my curiosity, to ascertain the "Seebote's" views in regard to the Bishop's decree, a curiosity perfectly harmless, I should think, especially since the "Seebote" is "merely a political paper," and could therefore state his conclusions without fear and perfectly independent of any religious tribunal.

That the Seebote considers the ex-communication of Free Masons a justifiable measure fully meets my expectations, and I would but add, that irrespective of earthly consequences, such an action of ouster would be of little or no importance, and might, like other follies, escape our notice. But the misery, the sorrow and the tears, which follow in its wake call for sympathy. On these, however, the zealous defender of anti-Masonry declines to dwell, the pious exhortations uttered to wives and children, by the priests, urging them to desert their husbands and their fathers, do not seem to suit his arguments, but he pictures the sufferings of NILSEN in Protestant Sweden instead, and while spanking of the maltreatment of Catholic ladies by Protestant intolerance, he exclaims, with a pious indignation: "Heartless, indeed, must be the persecutor who does not spare even the weakness of women." True, heartless indeed!—but Catholic fanaticism deserves no less to be spurned by every honest, independent man, than protestant intolerance, and I would most humbly confess, that I cannot possibly conceive why a Catholic onslaught on the most sacred ties of civilized society should be deemed just, or even excusable, because Protestant Sweden sees fit to banish all Catholics from its domains.

In regard to the "almost entirely exhausted Mortara case," the skillful and logic expounder of rights and wrongs remains true to his peculiar style of argument. He "confesses" that, after perusing the Massachusetts statutes, (which are not in favor of having all vagrant children baptized by Catholic priests,) and in memory of the bloody days at Philadelphia, "its don't find anything at all in it that seems to him extraordinary or of a high handed outrage." Indeed, admirable logic, overwhelming reasoning! The character of such arguments is too barefaced to call for any comments. I will leave the "Seebote" to his glory. But one more sentence I feel tempted to cite—a sentence, which, from its touching and purely religious nature, deserves particular mention. Here it is, in all its grandeur: "The Jewish boy insists on being a christian, and as ardently desires, that also his dearly beloved parents might embrace the faith of that Jewish child, before whom the whole Catholic world falls down and adores." Touching! is it not? I imagine a child scarce five years old "ardently desiring" the conversion of his parents to any particular religious creed. Children are rather forward in modern times, but I was not yet aware that the age of discretion was attained so soon.

Truly the "Seebote's" reasoning is so pitiful and weak, that no honor can be gained by disproving his objections, and while commenting upon his argument, it would indeed be most apt to say: "Difficile est, satiram non scribere."

Special Dispatch to the N. Y. Times.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.

Captains—Paine, Ramsey and Inman to the Active list, and Voorhees to the Leave on Pay List.

Commanders—Armstrong, Long, Johnson and Shaw to the active list, and Lecompte to the leave list.

Promotions to Commanders on the Active List—Lieutenants Porter, Williamson, Carter, Bissel, Gleason, Kilty, Chandler, Meade and Gibson.

Lieutenants to a place on the Active List.—Flagg, Walbach, Doyle, Marm, Riell, Perry, Rolando, Parker, Fitzgerald, Rhind, McArann, Byrens and Hall.

Lieutenants to leave on Pay List—Watson, Brownell, Abbott, Barney and Harrison.

Of these, Lieutenants Bissell, Carter, Kilty, Chandler, Meade, Gibson, Porter, Williamson and Gleason are promoted to be Commanders.

There was a fierce debate in Executive session in connection with one case—probably Johnson's—and very angry manifestations of feeling between certain gentlemen on the Democratic side of the Chamber. It is supposed, however, that the matter will be arranged by friends without further collision.

The President to-day, sent the additional nominations of Lieut. Mercer to the Active, and Lieut. Harrison to the Leave-pay list.

The Senate also confirmed all the pending nominations for appointments, made during the recess, of Post-masters, Consuls and Land officers, except one of the latter in Minnesota—thus clearing the Executive calendar.

A VALUABLE CARGO GONE UNDER.—It is estimated that the cargo of the Peter Tellon, which sunk with the boat, near Greenville, on the Lower Mississippi, as per telegram in yesterday's DEMOCRAT, was worth one hundred thousand dollars. It included four thousand barrels of flour, and a large lot of lard, &c., which, as also a large quantity of live stock, she received at Evansville and points below, for a southern market.

The Western Wrecking Company of this city, contemplate, we understand, undertaking the great task of raising the cargo, which is said to be under sixty feet of water. It is a matter for congratulation that no loss of human life attended this disaster, notwithstanding the probability that the boat sunk very rapidly. We have no further particulars, but understood that the disaster occured during a fog—the boat running headlong into the river bank. She was valued at $20,000 or more, and is probably insured on the Ohio.—St Louis Dem., Dec. 24.

JUDGE DAVID TAYLOR OF SHEBOYGAN.—We make the following extract from a private letter, received this morning, from a gentleman of high standing in Fond du Lac county. It no doubt speaks the truth in regard to Judge Taylor. He is a man of eminent ability, a thorough lawyer, and of a decision of character that fits him admirably for the bench. The letter bears date—

FOND DU LAC, Dec. 22, 1858.

There is now a special term of the Circuit Court being held at this place, Judge Taylor presiding. The Judge is establishing an enviable reputation in the discharge of his duties; he is prompt, clear in his decisions and impartial. It is conceded by all parties, that he is the most efficient Judge that has ever presided in our circuit. The Bar unitedly agree as to that fact.—The fact is, Taylor is now in his true element—he makes a first-rate Judge—long may he wear the honors of his office.—Madison State Journal.

Movement of the Farm Mortgagers.

Pursuant to public notice, a large number of mortgage stockholders in the La Crosse and Milwaukee Railroad, assembled at Pettibone's Hall, in this city, on the 16th inst. The meeting was organized by electing Hon. Hugh McFarlane Chairman, and Charles H. Moore Secretary.—Speeches were made by the chairman, Mr. Barrett, of Dodge Co., Peter Hughson, Alanson Hughson, D. Vandercook, Dr. Rockwood, and others, urging the formation of a league among the stockholders for mutual protection, and for defending to the utmost, their legal rights.

After a full discussion of the matter, the meeting resolved upon a permanent organization, and elected the following officers to hold their several offices for the term of three months:

Hugh McFarlane, President; Deentar Vandercook, Vice President; W. R. DeWitt, Secretary; Elisha A. Wells, Treasurer; and Wm. E. Clough, door keeper.

Outsiders, by request, then left the Hall to the occupancy of the mortgage stockholders to complete the organization. The Association was then named the "Pottage City Branch of the Farmers' Home League," the end and object of which is for the purpose of mutual protection and assistance, when occasion may require. The form of obligation was agreed upon and signed by all present, to the number of forty seven, and the sum of fifty cents each was paid in to the treasurer, to defray current expenses.

The League then adjourned to meet at the same place on the 25d inst., at 12 o'clock, noon. The organization, of which this is a branch, already numbers a large portion of the farm mortgagors in Dodge and this County, and as far as we can learn, is likely to be unanimous with all who are in the same boat. They are determined to test, in the courts, their legal rights. Remembering the illustration of the bundle of sticks they bind themselves to united action, instead of taking the chances singly.—Badger State.

Tom Hyer Claims the Belt.

"Sir:—Excuse the liberty I take in trespassing upon your valuable time, when I request you to give the following an insertion in your paper. It would appear that, judging from the tone of the various journals in this city, the championship of America (in regard to the fighting ring) rests with flourishing laurels upon the brow of Mr. Morrissey; and after claiming that championship publicly, he also avows his intention of retiring from the ring, fearing that, should he still hold out his pugilistic principles, he might come in contact with some one who would case him of that honor.

"In the late fight with Mr. Heenan he won the battle and claimed the championship; and after both parties recovered from the effects of the fight, Mr. Heenan again challenges him, through the columns of your paper, and in case he refused the challenge extends it to the world to fight any man for any sum to $10,000 and the Championship of America.

"Now, sir, I deny the claim of either party to that championship. I hold the belt myself, and am determined to hold it till fairly conquered.—I will say, however, for myself, I never willingly entered the ring, but when I am forced into it, I am also determined to be forced out of it only by greater powers of muscle than myself.

"I accept Mr. Heenan's challenge, and will fight him or any other man for $10,000, the fight to take place in three months from the time the first amount is placed in the stakeholder's hands, in whatever location both parties agree upon; and should my engagement with Mr. Heenan prove successful, (of which I have no doubt,) I will fight any man in the world for the same amount twice over, rather that see myself dispossessed of that which I justly claim. Hoping you will gill give the above an insertion, I remain, most respectfully yours.

THOMAS HYER,
The Champion of America.

"LET ME KISS HIM FOR HIS MOTHER."—The editor of the New Orleans Advocate gives this incident about the ravages of the yellow fever in that city, related to him by one of the Methodist pastors:

"The preacher was called a few days since to attend the funeral of a young man. Before his sickness he was a stout, buoyant, manly youth. He was from the State of Maine, and had been here but a short time. He was attacked by yellow fever, and soon died, with no mother or relative to watch by his bedside, or to soothe him with that sympathy which none but those of our own 'dear kindred blood' can feel or manifest.—He died among strangers and was buried by them. When the funeral service was over, and the strange friends who had ministered to him were about to finally close the coffin, an old lady who stood by, stopped them and said, 'Let me kiss him for his mother?' We have yet to find the first man or woman to whose eye this simple recital has not brought tears."

DEATH OF A FRENCH GENERAL.—The gallant General Ardent, who, after commanding the artillery through the Crimean war, has just met his death by a singular accident at Vincennes. In company with Marshal Vaillant, the Minister of War, and a large number of officers, he was watching the effects of the explosion of bombs, from a block house erected for that purpose. A very small opening, of less than an inch wide, was left for the purpose of observation, and the officers took their place at this alternately.—Scarcely had General Ardent placed himself before it when a bomb exploded, and a fragment, passing through the trifling aperature, struck him on the forehead with such force as literally to scatter his brains on his brother officers around! Thus died, in the midst of friends and peace, by an almost inconceivable hazard, a gallant soldier, who had passed unscathed through a hundred combats.

THE HONORED GUEST.

A SHORT CHAPTER FOR WIVES.

"Well," said I, one fine morning last week, "I have the prospect of a leisure afternoon—a somewhat unusual thing with me—and, all being well, I will do a little needful shopping; call and pass an hour with my old friend Mrs. Ashburton, whom, on account of the distance, I have neglected of late; and then drop in to take a friendly cup of tea with my niece, Clara Whitford."

Having completed my household arrangements, I accordingly set out, after an early dinner, and the shopping done, made my first call. Mrs. Ashburton's warm welcome, pleasant talk, and cheerful fireside, would have proved strong temptations to induce me to accept her invitation to remain for the evening, had I not felt anxious to see my niece, whose residence was much nearer my own.

On arriving at Clara's door, I was but a little surprised to see no light in the front part of the house. "I am afraid they are from home," thought I, with a regretful mental glance, backward at the pretty home picture I had just left. But I was mistaken. A servant came in answer to my ring at the door-bell, and, ushering me into the dining room, lighted the gas, and went to summon her mistress. I had ample time to look about me before Clara made her appearance, and could not help admiring the perfect order and good taste which prevailed in both the apartment and its furniture. I was the more pleased to note this, as my niece, when unmarried, did not promise to become very notable as a housewife.

I was beginning to tire of waiting—as, my brisk walk over, I felt chilly in the fireless room—when Clara, entered, fastening a little article of dress, evidently just assumed. Her greeting was most cordial; and yet there was a shade of regret in her tone, when, our first salutations over, she said: "Why, my dear aunt, did you not let me know you were coming, and I should have been better prepared to receive you."

"Surely, Clara," I replied, "no preparation is needed before you can bestow a cup of tea on so near a relative as I am. Pray do not make my friendly call into a ceremonious visit, or I shall be tempted to run away again, in place of waiting until after tea, and begging Mr. Whitford's escort home."

"Pray, dear aunt, do not think of such a thing. I will light this fire in a moment, and the room will soon be warm and comfortable."

So saying, Clara was about to apply a light between the bars of the grate, when I stopped her.

"You must have a fire somewhere, my dear," I said; "and where you were sitting when I arrived will, I am sure, suit me the best. If I am to disturb any of your arrangements, I will leave you forthwith."

"Then, if so, aunt, you will have to excuse my taking you into the nursery."

"Anywhere to a warm fireside, Clara; but is Mr. Whitford from home?"

"No, aunt, he is here," replied my niece, her color rising as she spoke.

I laughingly congratulated her on her husband's liking for the company of her first born; but, perceiving no evidence of pleasure on her countenance, I asked if the baby was well.

"Oh yes, quite so, thank you, aunt. To say the truth, it is my doing that we are in the nursery to-night, and Frederick is not too well pleased about it; but it saves so much trouble, and the other rooms have just been cleaned and put in order. But do not say a word," she added, as she opened the nursery door.

My nephew advanced, shook me warmly by the hand and then, turning to Clara, said: "I hope, my dear, you do not intend to make your aunt a hasty guest. If you do, I shall not wonder if her visits become of rare occurrence."

I hastened to assure him that I had been brought there at my own request, and begged no difference might be made; but quietly ringing the bell, he desired a servant to light the dining-room fire, and bring word when it was well burnt. Clara bit her lip, and looked red and uncomfortable, whilst I, feeling still more so, occupied myself in admiring the baby. I could, however, distinguish easily enough two or three little articles which convinced me that a tea equipage had just been removed; and certainly this was not what I should have expected to see in Clara's home, knowing the comfortable and affluent income of her husband. I felt sorry my unceremonious visit should have produced such an alteration in the arrangements; for I could tell, from the production of sundry keys, etc., etc., that many articles not in common use were to be brought out, and the evening meal deferred on my account. Beside this, I felt grieved at Mr. Whitford's ill concealed vexation, not displayed towards me, but his wife.

At length we were summoned to the dining-room; and truly a wonderful change had been effected there. A bright fire illuminated every corner; an elegant tea-equipage was on the table; in short, everything looked—as I had hoped at first to find it—in accordance with the position of the owners. Moreover, the pleasant aspect of affairs banished the cloud from Mr. Whitford's face, and so agreeably did the time pass, that I quite regretted when obliged to bid my niece "good night."

"Good night, dear aunt," said Clara affectionately kissing me; "do come again very soon, but do let me know when to expect you."

"And then," added Mr. Whitford, after the door was closed, "the dining-room fire will be lighted before your arrival. Dear aunt, what do you think of Clara's new notions respecting domestic economy? When we were first married, she was rather ignorant of household matters; now we are so exceedingly orderly and careful, that everything is too good to use. The drawing-room first became so; then the dining room underwent a thorough renovation; and the nursery resorted to for temporary convenience during the repairs, has become our regular abode, the others being only used on state occasions. Probably our next move will be in the kitchen. I go into other houses, and find that their masters can introduce a friend any time, with the certainty of causing no embarrassment. In my house, on the contrary, the call of a relative even produces quite a domestic revolution; for plate, china, in fact everything presentable, is laid up in lavander, like the rooms. I wish you would say something to Clara on the subject, as I know you possess great influence in that quarter."

"Have you named the matter, Frederick?" I asked.

"Oh, yes, a thousand times, I think; but I cannot effect any change. I trust you will be more successful."

"I will try, at any rate," said I, as I took leave of my nephew-in-law.

Having thought over the matter, I arranged my plan of operation. I decided it would be better to try the effect of an opposite picture on Clara's mind, before giving utterance to any remonstrance, for I well knew that young housewives do not generally relish the pointed interference of their elders. I therefore called for Clara—having previously given her due notice of my intention—to accompany me in a long ramble; and I contrived to be near Mrs. Ashburton's just as tea-time was approaching, and we were thoroughly tired.

"Clara," said I, 'what is to prevent our obtaining rest and refreshment? I will insure you a welcome to both, and, besides, you are not quite a stranger to Mrs. Ashburton."

"Oh, dear aunt, I could not think of such a thing; we should be sure to cause inconvenience."

"You shall judge for yourself, Clara," I answered; "and if you think so half an hour hence we will journey homeward."

The moment we were admitted, I frankly told my friend that I had come expressly to claim her oft tendered hospitality for my niece and self, as we were tired but still had a long walk before us.

"How glad I am that my house lay in your route!" replied she. "Tea is just coming in, and my husband will be here directly."

In a few moments he arrived, and we were all seated, prepared to join in the social meal. I noticed Clara's glances at the perfect order which surrounded us, and the elegant but simple preparations for the repast. Besides these, it was impossible not to feel the thorough comfort diffused around us.

"My niece," said I to Mrs. Ashburton, "was afraid of causing you inconvenience by coming unawares, and taking two places at your tea-table by storm."

A cheery laugh from Mr. Ashburton, and a bright smile from his wife followed my words.—"Mrs. Whitford," said the gentleman, "I am the most fortunate fellow in the world, for nothing ever causes my wife inconvenience. You understand me I dare say—I mean none of those domestic invasions which are usually expected to cause a bustle. She has a peculiar theory of her own, which she most thoroughly reduces to practice, consequently we are always able to welcome a friend however unexpected the guest may be."

Clara blushed and stammered a few words in reply; and, perceiving her confusion, I changed the conversation.

On our way home, after spending a delightful evening, my niece was unusually silent; but at length she asked if I could tell her what theory Mr. Asburton alluded to when he said——Here she hesitated.

"I understand you, Clara," I answered; and I can explain it in a very few words. Mrs. Ashburton says that being sure of the daily presence of one guest at her table, whom she wishes to honor above all others, she always prepares for that one, and is of course ready for any visitor and at any time."

"Did you not? And yet the person I allude to was there."

"Where?—whom do you mean? You are jesting."

"Indeed, my dear Clara, I am not. The one whom Mrs. Asburton considers worthy of all honor is her husband. She says, and I think justly, that she should deem her marriage vow but ill performed did she bestow pains to make her home attractive in the eye of a stranger, and grudge doing so for him whom she has promised to love, honor and obey—her husband, and the father of her children."

Clara did not speak in reply; but when we parted, the moistened cheek that touched mine convinced me the lesson was taken home; and I have little doubt that when I next visit my niece, I shall find her opinion is changed as regards the guest most deserving of honor.

A CARD TO THE "LADIES."

Dr. Duponco's Golden Periodical Pills,

FOR FEMALES.

The combination of ingredients in Dr. Duponco's Golden Pills are perfectly harmless. They have been used in the private practice of old Dr. Duponco for over thirty years, and thousands of ladies can testify to their great and never failing success in almost every case, in correcting irregularities, relieving painful and distressing menstruation, particularly at the change of life. From five to ten pills will cure that common, but dreadful complaint, the Whites. Nearly every lady in the land suffers from that complaint. The above pill has permanently cured thousands, and will cure you if you use them. They cannot harm you, on the contrary they remove all obstructions, restore nature to its proper channel, and invigorate the whole system. Ladies, whose health will not permit an increase of family, will find these pills a success for preventative. Pregnant females or those suppos ing themselves so, are cautioned against using these pills while pregnant, as the proprietor assumes no responsibility after the above admonition, although their directions would prevent any accident in health—otherwise these pills are recommended. Full and explicit directions accompany each box. Price $1 per box. H. BOSWORTH & SONS,

Wholesale Agents for Milwaukee.

They will supply the trade at Proprietor's prices, and furnish circulars, and show cards. Sold also by H. Fess, Jr., 195 East Water street; J. M. Alcott, 305, Jonas H. Tesch, 9 Spring St., and C. E. Gardner & Co., 10 Spring St. "Ladies! by enclosing $1,00 to H. Bosworth & Sons, or either of the above Ag nts, can have the Golden Pills sent to any part of the County (Consumptionist) by mail.

N. B.—Be particular in asking for Dr. Duponco's Golden Pills, and remember, they are not a secret nostrum, every Agent is proud to sell the original Duponco's Pills, and they will tell you they are the best and safest Pill for Females, ever introduced, since the science of Medicine dawned upon the world. sep9d1t h&7d4wly.

TO THE PUBLIC.

In answer to the numerous letters addressed to me on the subject of the Mustang Liniment, I would say that I have had no connection with that article for several years. It was invented by me, and while put up under my control and supervision, was universally accepted by the public, as the best Liniment in the world. Since I sold out my interest in it to other parties, and since that time it has passe I through the hands of several persons, most of whom have been so unscrupulous as to manufacture a cheap article and deceive the people, and thus to entire y destroy its value as a medical remedy, trusting for success in selling to its former highly established reputation. Its present proprietors have gone so far as to substitute other articles in its composition for those in the original prescription, so that the Mustang Liniment now vended possesses no one of the distinguishing characteristics of the genuine article, as it was originally invented and manufactured by me. These parties, to enable themselves with more facility to foist their worthless and injurious article on the public, use my name as the sponsor, calling it "Bragg's" Mustang Liniment, and continuing the practice, to the exclusion of any other Bragg's Liniment as an imposition. This is done with a view of exciting a prejudice against "BRAGG'S ARCTIC LINIMENT," an article more recently invented by me, and now possessed of all the virtues of the Mustang, with some improvements—the result of experience and later discoveries—and manufactured by Bragg & Berrenger, which first is composed of my friend, Oliver K. Bragg, and Michael Berrenger. This article is superior in many respects to the Mustang, when it was put up pure and in good faith, and is immeasurably superior to the article now vended as the Mustang Liniment. It is also the only liniment manufactured in which my name is appended by my authority or consent. In conclusion, I cannot hold myself responsible for any of the evil results of using the Mustang Liniment now vended, and earnestly advise the public distrust of any connection with its proprietorship or manufacture.

Respectfully, L. M. BRAGG, M. D.

MOTHERS! MOTHERS! MOTHERS!

DON'T FAIL to procure Mrs Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. It has no equal on earth. It greatly facilitates the process of teething, by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will relieve all pain, and spasmodic action, and regulate the bowels. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and relief and health to your infants. Perfectly safe in all cases.

This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the most experienced and skillful female Physicians in New England, and has been used with never-failing success in millions of cases.

We believe it is the best and surest remedy in the world, in all cases of Dysentery and Diarrhœa in children, whether it arise from teething or from any other cause.

If life and health can be estimated by dollars and cents, it is worth its weight in gold.

Millions of bottles are sold every year in the United States. It is perfectly well-tried remedy.

PRICE ONLY 25 CENTS A BOTTLE.

DR. KNAPP,

RECENTLY of N.Y., may be consulted at his Room, No. 6, Walker House, Milwaukee, the first of every month, commencing Nov. 1, in regard to all diseases, which he treats with unprecedented success. He cures chronic cases of disease, which have been pronounced incurable by the Medical Faculty generally, such as Nervous and Neuralgic Affections, Diseases of Women, all forms of Spinal Difficulty, Paralysis, Epilepsy, Dyspepsia, Consumptive and Tubercular Affections, including Pulmonary Consumption, Rheumatism, Paralysis, Epilepsy, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, the diseases of Children, &c., &c. All the perils and most of the sufferings of childbirth are removed by early consultation.

Remember, that the Doctor does not promise to cure at stages of Diseases. While All diseases are curable, if taken in time, all stages are not. Many cases may be curable this week, not next—to-day, not to-morrow, hence the danger of delay.

The Doctor will be at his Rooms from Monday noon, Jan. 3, to Thursday noon, Jan. 6. Consultation free. sep21d72w29dawly

R. R. R.

QUICK CURES.—Until the introduction of the R. R. R. remedies in 1849, no remedy ever claimed the marvelous power to relieve pain instantly, or even to promise a cure of any disease in a given time. RADWAY'S READY RELIEF, during the month of July, cured Mr. James Roberts, Jane st., N. Y., of a Chronic Rheumatism in 12 hours. It relieved him of pain in ten minutes. Mr. Ashworth, of Brooklyn, a cripple, was enabled to walk without his crutches in fifteen minutes after the cork was drawn from the bottle. Col. Jones, of Oak Mills, Va., a sufferer for many months, was to relieved that pain was entirely removed from both legs before the second leg had been rubbed some ten minutes, wal ed home. An old gentleman Twinger the Colonel's plantation, was cured of a stiff knee in five minutes. Those kinds of dyspepsia and diarrhœa were cured the first or twenty minutes at the farthest. There is no necessity for lingering in pain. The R. R. R. remedies are designed to revolutionize the whole medical world. People demand to be instantly relieved from pain and be quickly restored to health, and if physicians expect to be successful, they must examine into the R. R. R. theory—do their business quick—It is just as easy to cure your patients rapidly as it is to patch them up and drag them back to health. Our R. R. R. remedies were the first remedies that claimed to stop the worst pain in an instant, and cure the most violent complaint in a few hours. Office, No. 161 Fulton st. Sold by Druggists everywhere.

R. R. R. is sold by C. HARRINGTON, BOSWORTH & SON, L. F. LANE, and J. H. TESCH, Milwaukee, and by Druggists everywhere. dec6d4awly

OFFICE OF THE DAILY SENTINEL, }
Monday Evening, Dec. 27, 1858. }

The wheat market to-day has been tolerably active, and with larger receipts we note an improvement of 1c on standard No. 1 and good No. 2 spring, while extra grades are a shade lower. The sales comprise about 7,000 bus at 77a78c for No 1, 82a85c for extra No. 1, and 87a90c for choice milling spring. The receipts since our last are upwards of 18,000 bushels.

Sales of dressed hogs show little or no variation in prices from those given in Saturday's report, but the market was less active, however, and closed heavy. The receipts since our last are as follows:

MEDICAL DISCOVERY.

ALLEN'S SPECIFIC POWDERS.—The Proprietor, a Physician, having resided in the East Indies for upwards of fourteen years, with considerable study and perseverance after Medical Science, discovered a vegetable product of nature, which possesses extraordinary virtue, and exerts an influence hitherto unknown in the animal economy.

A solid extract from this plant (which is indigenous to Ohina, but grows also in India,) prepared in the form of powders, will aid and assist nature, when apparently ineffective, and remove the cause of sterility in married ladies, or females, from the age of 20 till upwards of 40 years.

The Physician, being a Botanist, while in China, as a Medical Officer during the late war, discovered the active principle of the plant, which invariably invigorates the whole system without producing any deleterious effect, on the contrary, it will restore to a healthful condition the constitution to health and strength. Thus, renewing and fortifying the frame towards the desired object.

The married portion of the female sex having no offspring, can procure packages of this invaluable medicine from the proprietor, Doctor ALLEN, or MARY ALLEN, at his office, Grove street, Fifth Ward, first house south of Wm Hastie No 7, or from his agents, Mr. Read, Druggist and Apothecary, No. 109 Main street Milwaukee.

Printed instructions and directions for the use of the medicine will accompany each package, with the written name of the proprietor, to prevent the possibility of any empiric forging his signature.

The genuine medicine can only be procured in Milwaukee, from the Proprietor or his Agents, by applying for it at their residence or by letter inclosing one dollar for each package, which will insure the safe transmission by post to any part of the United States, or elsewhere, to the address of the purchaser.

Doctor Allen will attend patients as Physician and Surgeon for one dollar each visit within the precincts of Milwaukee. And will give medical advice free, at his residence, from 9 till 11 o'clock every morning, Sundays excepted.

CONSUMERS of Richardson's Linens, and those desirous of obtaining the Genuine Goods, should see that all their Linen purchases are sealed with the full name of the firm,

This caution is rendered essentially necessary, as large quantities of inferior and defective fabrics are pronounced, by unscrupulous and unskilled writers, to be of RICHARDSON, by Irish Houses, who, regardless of the injury thus inflicted alike on the American consumer and the manufacturers of the genuine Goods, will not readily abandon a practice so profitable, while consumers can be imposed upon with Goods of a worth no character.
